Organises

The FIFTH INTERNATIONAL BILINGUAL SUMMER SEMINAR

ON

“PLATO AND THE ARTS”

Subtopics: Plato in the Renaissance / Plato and Poetry, and more.

July 25-29, 2010,
Ancient Olympia and Pyrgos, GREECE

Dear friends,

The Olympic Center for Philosophy and Culture (OCPC), in close collaboration with the Universities of Athens and of Cyprus, responding to the requests of undergraduate students, graduate students, and researchers from Greece as well as from abroad, will offer a seminar on Plato and the Arts.

During the program the participants will be able to attend colloquia and special lectures on the above mentioned topic as well as to participate in related cultural and social activities, excursions and guided tours to archeological sites of Olympia.

The program is conducted by distinguished members of Greek and foreign Universities and aims at bringing together researchers, scholars and students from all over the world.

The study groups of the seminar will be small and the lectures will be given in English (or French) and in Greek. Participants will be encouraged to write essays and participate in the discussion. The seminar will be based on a minimum registration of 20 participants. Should that enrollment number for the course not be met, the OCPC has the right to cancel the seminar and refund the registration fee. Once the course has started, no refund is possible.
